London Mortlocks

In 1881 the total number of Mortlocks in London north of the Thames was about 240, or roughly a quarter of the worldwide total. As can be seen from the data, the name of Mortlock was already current in London in the 15th Century. There is no means of confirming that Amyas Mortelake was related to the East Anglian Mortlocks, or whether he(?) came of independent stock from Mortlake in Surrey. Similarly for many of the later Mortlocks in London one cannot tell whether they are indigenous to that city, or immigrants from East Anglia. However for most London Mortlocks an East Anglian origin can be confirmed, or at least inferred from census records. Of the fifty or so heads of families in the 1881 London census, about thirty - 60% - were born in East Anglia and only 17 in London or Middlesex (Kent, Hampshire and Yorkshire each supplied one head of family in 1881 London). Many of these apparent cockneys had fathers or grandfathers with East Anglian roots. An example is the family in Stoke Newington of whom the patriarch was a partner in Skirrow and Mortlock, dealers in zinc and other metals; they originate from Suffolk via Cambridgeshire. Many other “London” Mortlocks can be found in my East Anglian lists. Particularly in times of agricultural hardship, the Great Wen was a great attractor. By 1881 we can see quite a few unmarried female Mortlocks in domestic service in London - a commonplace for the times.

There are some minor stars in the London statistics, for instance William, a Surrey and United England cricketer and veteran of the first-ever England tour of Australia in the 19th century. Henry, Master of the Stationers Company in the 17th Century, probably had his original familial roots in Essex. James, who discovered two groups of islands in the South Seas, both named after him in the 18th, married and lived in London but his genealogical roots were in Suffolk.

As to commercial enterprises, the China Mortlocks of Regent Street and Oxford Street have been repatriated to their home in East Anglia. The hatters of Gracechurch Street had their origins south of the Thames. As to occupations, we find innkeepers and butchers perhaps disproportionately represented and the latter may or may not be linked to a cheesemonger and a tea dealer. As usual, Mortlock is England in microcosm.

London, the great melting-pot, provides a large number of stray entries not linked to any other. I have grouped these by location. It would need a much more detailed search of parish registers to sort them out than I have felt able to undertake, and in any case many will not have been baptised in the Church of England, or, if so, some may have been christened long after their birth. However such a search could would reveal many more Mortlocks than easily-accessible sources such as IGI, Ancestry.co.uk, marriage licences, printed versions of parish registers, publicly-available census abstracts and probate records make visible. Even then, the natural mobility of Londoners, particularly in rented accommodation, would probably prevent conclusive linking of many families. Many individuals seem to have been out when the census taker called.

My London is the modern Greater London; some of the records used are to be found under their original counties of Kent and Surrey (to say nothing of Middlesex). This section closes with a selection from various London directories - many of the individuals named will be seen to be situated genealogically in the London or East Anglian tables. “In Little Titchfield-st is a chapel (called Providence chapel) belonging to a congregation who profess the doctrines of the late Mr. Whitfield, and style themselves Independents. Their minister is a man who was a coal-heaver, and for some whimsical reasons changed his name from Hunt to Huntington. He is author of a great variety of tracts, which are in much esteem among his followers. Some of them are of a very singular cast, especially one in which he illustrates the doctrine of a particular providence in a very improper and mistaken way.”

Elizabeth 1781-16.3.38 Marylebone

Mary, b.1810, living with her greengrocer mother (?Ann) and Hackney coach driver father, in Salisbury Mews/Thornton Place, Somers Town (by Baker St), Marylebone, died of being shot in the face in Crawford St, Marylebone, by Benjamin BURKUP, tailor of Greenwich (b.1805). The defence tried to get Burrup off by saying that he had actually died of a cold contracted by walking with him in the rain. This story was widely copied by papers in Newcastle, Hull, Oxford etc. He was duly hanged. Mary had been treated for her injury in the workhouse infirmary. But see St Pancras, above.

ST. MARYLEBONE FEMALE PROTECTION SOCIETY, 157, Marylebone-road .. “The society, founded in 1838, seeks to reclaim young women from all parts of the country who have, by one false step, fallen from the path of virtue. They are cared for in their trouble if expecting to become mothers; and after suitable training, are placed in service, where needful help is given them in supporting their infants, lest, through want, they should fall again. This is the more necessary from the extreme youth of many of the applicants, which prevents their earning sufficient to maintain their infants.”

A Phil NIXON in 2004 suggested that his great-grandfather, Samuel James NIXON b.1888 Hackney, was her son by Samuel. In fact she had four children, Maud, Lilian, Samuel James and Viney before marrying and having a daughter by John WOODHAM. Phil’s father John was the son of Samuel James jr, son of Samuel James NIXON as above. Elizabeth died in 1938. Louisa’s new sentence was a commutation of a sentence of transportation in Surrey 9.7.1852; out again, she was sentenced to transportation again in Kent 9.5.1853 - though clearly this was not carried out, as she received another 12 months in Wandsworth prison 30.4.1856 for stealing a purse in Newington but was paroled 23.5.56.

In 1901 Augusta was living with her sister Annie Adelaide b. 1859 Spitalfields & Annie’s husband John MANNOCH b. 1859 Faversham, grocer. This interpretation says there is only one William T and that he separated from Augusta and eventually lived with C/Katherine. It also assumes that the William, bootmaker cited in William T’s marriage lines is the same as the Robert in the 1861 census.

^ Percy George Mortlock was listed as missing in action on the Western Front in September 1917. Educated at Farningham School, S. Darenth, Kent (actually an orphanage), he was an operating theatre assistant in the London Hospital when he enlisted on 3rd September 1914 into the Army Cyclist Corps and was sent to France in March 1915. As a lance corporal he was sent for officer training to No. 11 OCTU on 12th May 1917 and was commissioned into the 26th battalion of the Royal Fusiliers on the 18th of July. Six weeks later, aged 27, he vanished into the maelstrom of battle, leaving a widowed mother. The Army charged his pitiful estate 18s. 5d for his Sam Browne belt [TNA, WO339/98236].

~ Sidney Martin was sent to T.S. Exmouth at Grays and joined the RM as a band boy in 1899. Ernest, overstating his age by a year, followed him to the Exmouth and became an RM band boy. Both transferred to the RMLI in 1905 and 1904 respectively. Ernest forfeited his three WW1 medals for desertion after the war [TNA, ADM188/516 & 521 (both pubs as Whitechapel); ADM159/ 60, 105, 106, 152]

William James served in the Royal Navy 1901-1911 and qualified as a diver. By 1908 he was a Leading Seaman but refused an order and was reverted to AB the next year [do.,/346]
